

Privacy Statement DRMI

January 2022

Statement

No personal data is processed via this website. DRMI B.V. considers proper handling of personal data essential. With regards to the processing of personal data received through other media than this website, these are carefully processed and secured by means of SSL encryption.

While processing the data, we adhere to the requirements of the Personal Data Protection Act. That means, among others, that we:

- Clearly state the purposes for which we collect and process personal data. This is done through the means of our Privacy Statement Agreement
- Limit our collection of personal data to only the personal data necessary for the stated purposes
- First ask your permission to process your personal data in cases where the consent is required
- Take appropriate security measures to protect your personal data and also the requirements of parties that process the data for us
- Respect your right to provide, correct and delete your personal data

DRMI B.V. B.V. is responsible for data processing. In this privacy statement, we explain which personal data we collect, use and for what purpose.

Use of personal data

DRMI B.V. only uses cookies that are necessary for the functioning of the website. We just keep and use the personal data that is entered by you directly (for example by sending us an e-mail) or data for which it is clear that they are provided to us for processing.

If you send us an email, the data and the content you send to us will be kept for as long as is required in order to fully respond to your query. We handle your data confidentially. We do not publish or forward these to the third parties.

Cookies

We only make use of functional cookies, i.e. cookies which are necessary for the use of the website, and analytic cookies, i.e. cookies which help us determine what can be improved on the website. We do not collect any personal data, do not run any remarketing efforts and do not compile any profiles of the visitors.

Processing agreement with third parties

We use the services of Google Analytics for data processing. The 'data sharing' feature is disabled and the Google Analytics cookies are not used in combination with other services of Google, such as DoubleClick and AdWords.

Periodic mailings

We send the results of our research periodically to a number of recipients whose email addresses we store. Your email address is added to the mailing list only with your prior permission. Every periodic email contains information about how to unsubscribe from the mailing list.

Third party websites

This privacy statement does not apply to websites of third parties which are connected to this website by means of links. We cannot guarantee that these third party websites handle your personal data reliably and securely. We encourage you to read the privacy statement of these websites before using them.

Changes to this privacy statement

This privacy statement may be adjusted occasionally. We advise you to consult this statement regularly so that you are aware of the changes. The date of the latest adjustment to this statement is mentioned at the bottom of this page.
